welcome

At Blackpool FC we are delighted to offer you a variety of hospitality packages for the 2018/19 season at Bloomfield Road.

With a reputation for fine standards and value for money, Blackpool's hospitality experience is unsurpassed in football.

The club's long-term partnership with Rowley's Restaurant ensures high quality cuisine is delivered as standard. There's now more variety than ever, with special menus celebrating key dates in the food calendar. Ingredients come from near and far, with head chef Paul Rowley and his team continually striving to improve the experience for the club's hospitality guests.

An ardent fan or a one-off visitor looking for a formal or casual option, the outstanding facilities at Bloomfield Road are on offer to all, and Blackpool FC would be delighted to welcome you.

match day vip hospitality

The Stanley Matthews Lounge provides the most prestigious match day hospitality experience at Bloomfield Road.

During the game guests are housed in the comfort of the West Stand balcony, providing an unrivalled view of the pitch and match day atmosphere.

Packages are available for individual games or on a seasonal basis. Below is a full list of what is on offer in the hospitality package.

- Exclusive balcony seat for your chosen game
- Pre-match three-course meal in the Stanley Matthews Lounge
- Half-time tea, coffee and cheese board
- Complimentary match day programme and official team sheet
- Car parking pass
- Goal betting prediction
- Man of the Match presentation with post-match thoughts

1953 suite hospitality

The corporate facility of Bloomfield Road's 1953 Suite provides an extra dimension to Blackpool's hospitality package.

Visitors can now enjoy the experience of a match day in a relaxed, informal environment. With no strict dress code, supporters can show off their colours in the company of other Blackpool fans.

Having enjoyed a delicious, one-course dish of the day served in the 1953 Suite, guests can then take their seat which is located behind the dugout to enjoy unrivalled views and the match day experience.

As standard, tea and coffee will be provided at half-time, as well as a complimentary match day programme and official team sheet.
